Escuela Oficial de Idiomas Alcalá de Guadaíra

① THE INSTITUTION

An Escuela Oficial de Idiomas (Official School of Languages or E.O.I. for its Spanish acronym) is a state-run language school in Spain whose studies are organised into four different levels: Basic (equivalent to level A2 CEFR), Intermediate (B1 CEFR), Advanced (B2 CEFR) and C1

② OUR SCHOOL

E.O.I. Alcalá de Guadaíra was created in 1991 and it offers English and French. The school building, Villa San José, is in the Old Town area, in walking distance to Alcalá's medieval castle. Once a Manor House, it is now part of Spain's Cultural Heritage. There are more than 1,200 students taking online and onsite courses. The school team is composed of 11 teachers

④ OUR INTERESTS

Considering the cognitive factors that affect adult learners in formal language teaching, we are interested in sharing and learning about measures carried out by other centres to give attention to diversity among students

Sharing and comparing different types of assessment, which is closely connected to the topic above, as a drive to develop reliability, validity and consistency of the assessment process

③ OUR STUDENTS

our students' motivation is diverse

& their profile vary

wide range of age groups

different cultural backgrounds

⑤ WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

We would like to establish cooperative and collaborative relationships with other institutions that can enrich our work and experience.

Through collaborative learning and the exchange of good practice and ideas, we believe we can improve and grow.
