

INVITATION

Cambridge University Press invites you to a free training seminar for EOI teachers on how to engage and motivate adult learners.

➤ THE TALK

Maintaining motivation: engaging learners during the lesson and throughout the course

This workshop will explore different aspects of learner motivation and the ways in which goal setting, appropriate learning resources and personal response play a key role in engaging young adult learners in the classroom. We will look at why these features are key to keeping young adult learners focused and motivated during their lessons and throughout the whole course.

➤ THE SPEAKER

Craig Thaine has been involved in ELT for more than 30 years. He is Cambridge DTEFLA qualified and also has an MA (Hons.) in Applied Linguistics. He has worked as a teacher and teacher trainer in many different countries and is currently Director of Teacher Training at Languages International, Auckland and is a Cambridge ESOL Teaching Awards assessor for both the CELTA and Delta schemes. He has extensive experience developing and teaching English language courses to adult learners. Craig is author of Real Listening and Speaking Level 2 (2008), Teacher Training Essentials (2010) and Cambridge Academic English Intermediate (2012), all with Cambridge University Press. He is also co-author of the Cambridge English Empower general English adult course.
